In spite of the fact that it is crowded and costs vary from correct bargains to insanely high priced, it's the easiest approach to get your hands on the very best weapon for the class and buy MapleStory M Mesos sometimes can benefit you. This can be also the cheapest technique to do it, as regular weapons are usually on sale for much less than rarer weapons and you can enhance their rarity levels as you play. But you shouldn't lose hope as there (still) is a place where you can find some amazing deals: the Trade Station. Don't look for fancy, rare and insanely expensive weapons whose damage is actually under that of a personally leveled up normal weapon! Choose a regular, but make sure that it has Max DMG for your class and its type. But what is the best weapon for each class? Now that MapleStory M has finally been released worldwide and everybody seems to be playing and enjoying the game, you're probably starting to wonder what's the best weapon in MapleStory M. And what is the greatest weapon for each and every class? There is one very important thing to look at and that is getting a weapon with maximum damage. Chances are that, due to the unique way that MapleStory M handles weapons, you will indeed have to rethink your strategy and the sooner you read our guide to weapons in the game, the better as it will help you get on the right direction ASAP. Therefore, experience and grinding comes into play again and based on our experience, these are the weapons you should focus on getting in order to have the best chances for super skills that unlock when you level up your normal weapon to the next level. That is where you will eventually find your best weapon, and no place else. The sooner you get a single function on upgrading it, a lot easier it can be. These are, in my opinion, the best weapon types for each class in MapleStory M: - Warrior: Jaihin weapons- Archer: Briser Guns- Mage: Jaihin- Thief: Briser weapons- Pirate: Briser So, combining this knowledge with the Max Damage listed above, you will be able to sort through the trash in the Trade Station (or grind your way into the game like crazy until you get it) and find your perfect weapon based on your class. This also ensures that you will always have maximum damage and, even though there's a bit of uncertainty regarding the stats, by choosing the recommended ones above you won't go wrong. They are, in my opinion, the very best weapon varieties for every class in MapleStory M: - Warrior: Jaihin weapons - Archer: Briser Guns - Mage: Jaihin - Thief: Briser weapons - Pirate: Briser So, combining this understanding together with the Max Damage listed above, you might be able to sort by means of the trash within the Trade Station (or grind your way into the game like crazy until you get it) and discover your best weapon based in your class. Do not look for fancy, rare and insanely expensive weapons whose harm is really below that of a personally leveled up standard weapon! Select a frequent, but make sure that it has Max DMG for the class and its type. And ensure that you maintain upgrading that weapon to offer you maximum advantages constantly. Now, you will discover no places (but) where you can appear for the max damage in the weapons in an effort to ensure that you are indeed acquiring the correct one, but based on substantial playing and testing, these are the values that we take into account to be correct, primarily based on the distinct classes within the game: - Warrior: 27- Archer: 28- Mage: 30- Thief: 29- Pirate: 28 So constantly appear, primarily based around the class you're in, for any regular weapon with all the damage listed above. This also ensures which you will usually have maximum damage and, although there's a bit of uncertainty regarding the stats, by picking out the recommended ones above you won't go incorrect. In today's guide we're going to share a full MapleStory M weapons guide on tips on how to uncover the ideal weapon for your class. Hopefully this helps you better plan your moves and strategy in the game and you know how what's the best weapon in MapleStory M for your character. If you have been playing MapleStory M for a while, you realize already that very good weapons are very difficult to come by as you begin out. For that reason, practical experience and grinding comes into play again and based on our encounter, they are the weapons you should concentrate on receiving in an effort to possess the most effective possibilities for super expertise that unlock any time you level up your typical weapon for the subsequent level. Hopefully, this aids you superior program your moves and approach within the game and also you understand how what's the most beneficial weapon in MapleStory M for the character. Now, there are no places (yet) where you can look for the max damage of the weapons in order to make sure that you're indeed getting the right one, but based on extensive playing and testing, these are the values that we consider to be correct, based on the different classes in the game: - Warrior: 27- Archer: 28- Mage: 30- Thief: 29- Pirate: 28 So always look, based on the class you're in, for a normal weapon with the damage listed above. The sooner you get one and work on upgrading it, the easier it is! If you have additional thoughts about weapons in the game or anything to add, don't forget to comment below. But you shouldn't drop hope as there (still) can be a spot where you can discover some incredible offers: the Trade Station. But the problem with normal weapons is that you can't see anything but the Scissor Cuts in their stats section when trying to buy it from the Trade Station. There is certainly a single crucial point to appear at and that may be acquiring a weapon with maximum damage. But the difficulty with normal weapons is that you cannot see something, however, the Scissor Cuts in their stats section when looking to buy it in the Trade Station. Now, if you've been playing MapleStory M for a while, you know already that good weapons are extremely difficult to come by as you start out. That is definitely exactly where you may eventually locate your finest weapon and no location else. So, as the title of the article says it, in today's article we're going to share a complete MapleStory M weapons guide on how to find the best weapon for your class. This is also the cheapest way to do it, as normal weapons are usually on sale for less than rarer weapons and you can increase their rarity levels as you play. How can you find the weapons? And make sure that you keep upgrading that weapon to give you maximum benefits at all times. Or, even more, to ask yourself if you should approach the whole weapons thing in the game differently than you currently do. Despite the fact that it's crowded and prices vary from true bargains to insanely expensive, it's the easiest way to get your hands on the best weapon for your class.
